WEST TEXAS MOVING FOR ANOTHER A. & M. COLLEGE

West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Plainview Decides To Bring The Question Of New College Before Texas Legislature For Action.

(Silliman Evans in Fort Worth Star Telegram)
Plainview, Texas, May 24.—Congratulating West Texas because the West Texas Chamber of Commerce shows the largest membership enrollment of any similar organization in the United States, the resolution committee of the organization in its report to the convention in session here today demanded that "our Senators and Representatives initiate and support such measures as will bring about an equalization of tariff upon Southern goods and products, such as cotton seed and its products, peanuts, wool and other field crops." Renewing the unsuccessful battle that West Texans have been making for years for adequate representation in the Senate of Texas and the establishment of a West Texas A. & M. College, the committee returned resolutions demanding both. Since the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in Ranger the Texas Legislature, in accordance with the efforts of West Texas, passed a bill reating a West Texas A. & M. College and this measure was vetoed by Governor Neff. The Legislature also adopted a Senatorial redistricting bill, but postponed its effectiveness until 1924 and this provision is the basis for a material doubt as to the validity of the law.

Refer to Congressional Action

The representation resolution goes further than before and demands a just congressional representation. The plank reads: "We feel strongly that West Texas is being discriminated against in the matter of representation in the Texas Senate, and in our national Congress and can not too strongly express our dissatisfaction for the delay of the national Congress in arranging to basis for representation; nor our belief that the postponement of our State Senatorial redistricting bill until 1924 is an unjust and unwarranted discrimination against this section of our State. We strongly approve the proposed movement to make this law effective at once and pledge our support to any movement looking to this end."

The West Texas A. & M. College demand follows: "We maintain that the need of an A. & M. College located within a reasonable distance of the homes of its students and its instructions, experiments, etc., be under the same environment, climatic and social condition as will be met by said students upon their return home is not lessened with the passing of time and is more insistent now than ever before, therefore, we commit this organization unreservedly to continue the fight for the securing of such an institution of first rank, until the State Legislature and Government of this State are willing to take favorable action thereon."

Taxation Is Attacked.
Then follows a stinging rebuke of the present taxation system the committee declaring "we appreciate the fact that for each $2.00 collected from West Texas for public school purposes not to exceed $1.00 is returned to us for our schools," and the convention if it adopts the resolution, "protests against the existing plan of taxation for school purposes and insists that without rapidly growing population, the necessity for new and larger school buildings throughout West Texas we shall be allowed to retain all funds collected in each county for the support of its own public schools."

TEXAS ANNOUNCE 1922 FOOT BALL SCHEDULE

(Special to the Eagle).
Austin, Texas, May 24.—Athletic Director L. T. Belmont states that the football schedules of the University of Texas for next fall leaves very little to be desired since it provides for games with almost all of the best teams of the South and Southwest. The complete schedule is as follows:

Sept. 29—Austin College at Austin.
Oct. 7—Phillips at Austin.
Oct. 14—Oklahoma A. & M. at Austin.
Oct. 21—Vanderbilt at Dallas.
Oct. 28—Alabama at Austin.
Nov. 4—Rice Institute at Houston.
Nov. 11—Oklahoma at Norman, Okla.
Thanksgiving Day—Texas A. & M. at Austin.

The most important of the games to be played, it is thought, will be the games with Vanderbilt, Oklahoma University and Texas A. & M. Vanderbilt defeated Texas last year, and the game with Texas A. & M. resulted in a tie. Texas University has not played Oklahoma for several years, and this game will be awaited with much interest, since Oklahoma was formerly a great rival of Texas in football. The games with Vanderbilt and Oklahoma University are not conference games, and will have no bearing upon the standing of Texas in the Southwestern Conference.

REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT BILL UPHOLD BY COURT

Supreme Court Decides New Redistricting Bill Voted—Will Be 150 Members of House of Representatives Instead of 142 Members.

(By Associated Press)
Austin, May 24.—Texas Supreme Court today held the Representative Redistricting Bill passed at the last session of the Legislature to be constitutional. The omission of Swisher county in passing the bill was the cause of the attack. The court held it was undoubtedly the intention of the Legislature to place Swisher county in the 120th district that apportionment population as made by legislature is valid. The 1922 election will be held under the new law giving Texas 150 representatives, the limit of the State Constitution, against 142 members now in the legislature.

Body of Briggs Taken From

Brazos River at Allen Farm

The body of B. J. Briggs, aged seven years and drowned in the Brazos river bridge collapse near Marlin more than a week ago, was recovered about 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Allen farm in Brazos county. This body added to those of Dr. Allen, Mayor Stalworth, Mrs. Morley and two negroes makes six bodies that have been recovered. It is noted that at different times three other bodies have been seen floating down the Brazos since the accident and they are believed to be Frank Wegnoski, missing oil man from Louisiana who was thought to have been on the bridge, and a missing negro whose name is unknown. A short time before the body of the Briggs child was recovered three men at the Koppe bridge, Messrs. Thomas, Yeager and Straub, attempted to capture it and their boat capsized in the turbulent waters. All came near losing their lives but were rescued. The body was then swept by the current to Allen Farm where it was recovered. Messrs. J. E. Covey, R. M. Walker, County Collector Roy Hudspeth M. M. Erskine and W. O. Sanders accompanied Ben F. Briggs, grandfather of the deceased boy, and E. H. Brooks of Marlin, to Allen Farm as soon as the news was received here that the body had been rescued. They brought the body here arriving at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning and it was prepared for shipment to Marlin by McCulloch-Gordon Undertaking Company, on the noon Houston and Texas Central train.

Before leaving for Marlin Mr. Briggs, grandfather of the boy, called at the Eagle office and noted that he was duly grateful to the people of Bryan and Brazos county for all the service they rendered the family during the week's search for the body of the child. While the body was decomposed and swollen beyond recognition the identification was complete on account of an injury to one of the hands of the child. When the message came from Marlin to Bryan asking aid in recovering the lost a body a hearty response to the distress call was given and the Brazos river was continually watched for the bodies of those who lost their lives when the bridge collapsed and folded like a book, leaping into the angry waters of the Brazos river, taking down thirty persons, eight of whom lost their lives, and several making a heroic battle for their lives and were rescued more than a mile and a half down the river, including Rev. H. M. Knickerbocker, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Marlin.

DRYNESS NOW CAUSES BEAUTY PARLOR BOOM

(Special to the Eagle)
Atlantic City, N. J., May 24.—Income tax returns may reveal that many businesses have prospered since prohibition, but perhaps none has boomed so much as the beauty parlor, according to Mrs. Harry Newton Price of Washington who conducts two such establishments at the capital. "It is easy to trace the growth of the beauty parlor business to prohibition," said Mrs. Price. "When men drank they were not so critical. Their wives and sweethearts looked attractive to them without the assistance of beauty parlors. Now however, men remain clear-eyed all evening and notice wrinkles, pallor, straight hair and unsparkling eyes. As a result, women are flocking to beauty parlors and we have to turn many away every day."

ANOTHER BODY HAS BEEN RECOVERED

(By Associated Press)

REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT BILL UPHELD BY COURT

Supreme Court Decides New Redistricting Bill Voted—Will Be 150 Members of House of Representatives Instead of 142 Members.

(By Associated Press)

Austin, May 24.—Texas Supreme Court today held the Representative Redistricting Bill passed at the last session of the Legislature to be constitutional. The omission of Swisher county in passing the bill was the cause of the attack. The court held it was undoubtedly the intention of the Legislature to place Swisher county in the 120th district that apportionment population as made by legislature is valid. The 1922 election will be held under the new law giving Texas 150 representatives, the limit of the State Constitution, against 142 members now in the legislature.

Prof. R. O. Allen extended an invitation to the board of directors and the entire Chamber of Commerce to attend the commencement exercises of Allen Academy. The invitation was unanimously accepted by the board.

Several important questions for the good of the entire community were discussed by the entire membership of the board and these matters are always very interesting to the members of the board who attend the meetings regularly. Among other things President W. H. Cole read a splendid article on Building and Loan Associations which the Eagle is glad to commend very highly to all thoughtful citizens.

DRYNESS NOW CAUSES BEAUTY PARLOR BOOM

(Special to the Eagle)

Atlantic City, N. J., May 24.—Income tax returns may reveal that many businesses have prospered since prohibition, but perhaps none has boomed so much as the beauty parlor, according to Mrs. Harry Newton Price of Washington who conducts two such establishments at the capital. "It is easy to trace the growth of the beauty parlor business to prohibition," said Mrs. Price. "When men drank they were not so critical. Their wives and sweethearts looked attractive to them without the assistance of beauty parlors. Now however, men remain clear-eyed all evening and notice wrinkles, pallor, straight hair and unsparkling eyes. As a result, women are flocking to beauty parlors and we have to turn many away every day."

ANOTHER BODY HAS BEEN RECOVERED

(By Associated Press)

COL. WOLF AT COLLEGE

College Station, Texas, May 24.—Colonel Paul A. Wolf of the regular army and Major Charles F. They came overland from Austin and returned last night.

Body of Briggs Taken From Brazos River at Allen Farm

The body of B. J. Briggs, aged seven years and drowned in the Brazos river bridge collapse near Marlin more than a week ago, was recovered about 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Allen farm in Brazos county. This body added to those of Dr. Allen, Mayor Stalworth, Mrs. Morley and two negroes makes six bodies that have been recovered. It is noted that at different times three other bodies have been seen floating down the Brazos since the accident and they are believed to be Frank Wegnoski, missing oil man from Louisiana who was thought to have been on the bridge, and a missing negro whose name is unknown. Short time before the body of the Briggs child was recovered three men at the Koppe bridge, Messrs Thomas, Yeager and Straub, attempted to capture it and their boat capsized in the turbulent waters. All came near losing their lives but were rescued. The body was then swept by the current to Allen Farm where it was rescued. Messrs J. E. Covey, R. M. Walker, County Collector Roy Hudspeth M. M. Erskine and W. O. Sanders accompanied Ben F. Briggs, grandfather of the deceased boy, and E. H. Brooks of Marlin, to Allen Farm as soon as the news was received here that the body had been rescued. They brought the body here arriving at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning and it was prepared for shipment to Marlin by McCulloch-Gordon Undertaking Company, on the noon Houston and Texas Central train.

Before leaving for Marlin Mr. Briggs, grandfather of the boy, called at the Eagle office and noted that he was duly grateful to the people of Bryan and Brazos county for all the service they rendered the family during the week's search for the body of the child. While the body was decomposed and swollen beyond recognition the identification was complete on account of an injury to one of the hands of the child. When the message came from Marlin to Bryan asking aid in recovering the lost a body a hearty response to the distress call was given and the Brazos river was continually watched for the bodies of those who lost their lives when the bridge collapsed and folded like a book, leaping into the angry waters of the Brazos river, taking down thirty persons, eight of whom lost their lives, and several making a heroic battle for their lives and were rescued more than a mile and a half down the river, including Rev. H. M. Knickerbocker, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Marlin.

The Mexia Evening News is a newspaper with the human touch. Too many of our newspapers never hit nearer home than China or Madagascar. Long live the Mexia Evening News, one of the brightest and best newspapers in Texas.

County Superintendent Eek Smith has received a letter from Governor Neff regarding the public school question in Brazos county and Texas as submitted recently by the petitions of the people of this county and this letter will appear in the Eagle on Monday.

There is enough talk by newspapers preachers, judges and others regarding mob law in the United States—but there is not enough talk about law enforcement. Nearly every man who is going to go out and commit some dastardly crime against the home and womanhood believes he has some powerful friends. Enforce the law!

Control of flood waters and conservation of Texas overflow lands, the richest soil in the nation, challenge some real constructive statesmanship, leadership and law-making. Where is a Moses to deliver our Lone Star State from this annual devastation and destruction to life, crops and prosperity?—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

The following ad which appeared in The Times the other morning demonstrates that even in Manhattan pets are placed aside from riches and autos: "Lost—Reward and no questions asked if my pet monkey which disappeared with my automobile is returned; description, small white face, ring tail. Engstrom, 136 West 75th."

The Athens Reviews says: "Over at Madisonville Day and Knight conduct the Madisonville Meteor. The two men were subject for many jokes at the recent press meeting." There are not two better men in Texas than our friends Day and Knight of Madisonville and we have traveled with them day and night in Texas and Mexico.

BOOST FOR BRYAN HI.
The Bryan High Athletic Association has inaugurated a "Boost Bryan Week," beginning next Monday and will furnish all with Bryan Auto Home Plates. Every boosting citizen of Bryan is requested to secure one of these plates at once and join in the boost for the Bryan Hi football champs.

Texas deserves a more advanced place in the list of states arranged in order as they stand on educational matters. She can walk up to the head of the list instead of remaining close to the foot of the class if her statesmanship and citizenship will only properly co-operate. Texas lawmakers need a real vision on the school question—from the most secluded little rural school house all the way along up to the highest institution of learning.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

FOURTH DISTRICT FEDERATION
Mrs. Mary Hunt Affleck of Brenham, a gifted Texas woman and a writer of note, will be at College to attend the Woman's Club Federation. Mrs. Affleck has given much of her greatest glory and honor of Texas, the greatest state in the American Union and the Eagle is glad she came to the federation.—Bryan Eagle.

Mrs. Mary Hunt Affleck is a talented and lovely woman, and a young and lovely character.—Houston Chronicle.

Bryan citizens have been signally honored during the past few months by being elected to different honorary positions by their business associates. A. M. Waldrop has been elected president of the Texas Retail Clothiers' Association, W. S. Howell has been chosen president of the Texas Lumberman's Association, City Manager E. E. McAdams has been elected vice-president of the Texas League of Municipalities and Major L. L. McInnis has been chosen one of the executive advisory council for Texas the American Bankers' Association.

BRYAN HI IS ALIVE
The Bryan High School Athletic Association is a live organization for our school and town, and they have just recently undertaken a live, boosting activity that has the endorsement of every big Chamber of Commerce in the Middle West, and they also have the endorsement of our own Chamber of Commerce. The plan is to boost Bryan by means of Auto Home plates, bearing the name of Bryan, which are to be worn attached front and rear to the license plate. The plan has been investigated thoroughly and it appears to us as being a mighty good one. We'd like to see every citizen who owns a car lining up to help the boys put over this home town boosting.

TEXAS MUST SAVE HER AGRICULTURAL LANDS

(By Lee J. Rountree).

Texas is facing the greatest problem in its history, under the changed conditions of high cost of production and high prices of lands. There is no more cheap labor and cheap lands in Texas. There will be no more fertile lands made. All the agricultural lands, fruit and vegetable lands of Texas will soon be in cultivation. Especially is this true in the rich and fertile valley of the Brazos River, where the soil rivals that of the famous River Nile. The analysis shows that its rich lands rival the best of the whole world.

Disastrous floods are sweeping over the Brazos river watershed. It and its tributaries contain 5,000,000 acres of arid lands, and changed conditions bring flood waters down the smaller streams into the Brazos and to the sea. That means disaster to the growing crops and the rich lands. It means that men who have given their money and their life work to the cultivation of this wonderful country can not much longer bear the unequal burden laid on them by the flood waters from the north and the west. The limit of their heroic endurance has about come. In 1899, in 1918 and in 1913 they were sorely tried by great losses from waters from the spring, lying country. In September 1921 they lost all. In the spring of 1922 two disastrous floods have been their part of the harvest of the heavy rains.

Texas is now facing its gravest problems—the impounding of the flood waters of the Brazos River watershed for the arid lands and the drainage and protection of the low-lands that are flooded and inundated. We might as well face the issue that local levees will not save our lands. They will help it is true, but they are not sufficient. A mere handful of thoughtful citizens of Brazos, Robertson, Burleson, Washington and Grimes counties met in Bryan on May 15 and took a survey of the situation. They have a vision of what is needed and laid the foundation for the task before them. State Reclamation Engineer Stiles declared, "they were on the right road long and unbroken as it may seem to the men who intelligently and determinedly laid out the program to prevent the ultimate impoverishment of all the land owners of this wonderfully rich section of Texas. They gave their program of protection, reclamation and flood prevention to people of Texas. Shall they fail? The Governor of Texas declared at Denton a few days ago that the saving of Texas agricultural lands was a paramount issue and that he would favor a program of rehabilitation. Then follows the declaration of the Brazos Reclamation Association formed at Bryan upon the sound principles of self-preservation we must go before the country and make it possible to transact real business and not fail. The problem is here and we must find the remedy for its solution which means much work and determination but the sooner we get busy the better. Texans have never failed and they must not fail now. No people of patriotic courage are afraid to do the right and safe thing when it is the right way for procedure. The foundation is laid in Texas by the Bryan meeting so let us go forward to ultimate success as the forefathers never turned back in the face of disaster their children will not falter now in this crisis along the Brazos River which Governor Neff declares is Texas greatest problem.

STRAIGHTENING THE RIVER

CHANNEL OF THE KEMEDY.

(Hearse Democrat)

Judge Seth Burnett of Calvert, former mayor of that city, for many years a successful planter in the Brazos bottom, owning a large plantation near Elgin, a level-headed man whose opinions are worth passing on for the consideration of our readers, was in the city Monday morning and when asked about the overflow damage in his section, he said that several hundred acres of his place had been under water four times this spring.

He also said that up to 1899 overflows were of such rare occurrence that no one regarded them as a serious menace to successful farming in the Brazos river section; but they had now come to be looked for at any and all times of the year.

In his opinion the best remedy is for the Federal government to cut across the bends, straighten the channel, dredge out and clean out the bed of the stream, and that the water will run off as it used to do, instead of spreading out over all of the adjoining plantations by reason of the numerous bends and obstructions in the channel.

Billions of dollars have been spent by the Federal government in causes far less meritorious, and such streams as the Brazos in other states have been kept in excellent condition by Federal expenditure because the people demanded it of their congressmen, and their congressmen secured the necessary appropriations.

PEOPLE OF BRYAN

(By A Bryan High Graduate)

Be sure to come to the Bryan High School Saturday night, May 20, at 8 o'clock and hear some learned speakers of the public speaking class give short but interesting selections on various subjects. No two persons speak on the same subject. If you have any doubt in your mind as to how to live peacefully with yourself come hear Gertrude Sims speak on "Peace." Merle Minkert is going to give a short dissertation on "Gossip." If you don't know gossip when you hear it, Merle will show you clearly what it sounds like. Philip Hensarling is going to tell those who quake in their boots when they ask the boss for a raise how to get "courage" and Edwin Janick is going to give his famous speech on "The Home and the Republic." These are just samples, all are equally good. Be sure and come, the whole program lasts just long enough for you to be disappointed when it stops and you will have plenty of time to go elsewhere after the program. Don't forget—Saturday night, May 20, at 8 o'clock.

Editor With C. Edwards of the Denton Record-Chronicle was presented with a handsome and spacious traveling bag by his brother editors at Denton during the recent meeting of the Texas Press Association for his splendid and continuous work for the entertainment of the visitors. Incidentally Will was reminded that he will need the bag when he goes to the legislature at Austin this winter. We understand Will has lots of clothes to take to Austin and of course a big traveling bag will come in handy. The Eagle is truly glad that the people of Denton appreciate the work of Editor Edwards and are supporting him to the limit. This is fine co-operation and will succeed at all times.

MAYOR DIMMITT THANKS

BRYAN FOR GEORGETOWN

The members of the Georgetown City Council, Mayor L. J. Dimmitt, Dr. J. C. Godbey, Aldermen Owen W. Sherill, W. H. Davis and Walter Box and Fire Chief Alex W. Eanes, who came to Bryan last week to inspect our fire apparatus, paved streets and public utilities never tire of telling of their trip here and the splendid entertainment and reception they received. The following personal letter from Mayor Dimmitt whom we have known since he was a small boy speaks the sentiments of the entire party: "Office of Mayor, Georgetown, Texas, May 21, 1922. Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, Bryan, Texas. Dear Friends:—You will pardon me for not writing you sooner after our arrival home from Bryan. I've been so busy buying new fire equipment, selling paving bonds and getting our city engineer started in the new work I've had time for nothing. Mr. Rountree, the boys haven't stopped talking about our trip to Bryan yet. You certainly have a wonderful city and I am sure that it will grow and prosper with the present administration under Mayor Haswell you now have. What made me think and wonder is the harmony and efficiency displayed by your entire commission. When you see a city like the one you have the Bryan Country Club, we are bound to say Bryan has the "pep" that it takes to put over any proposition. Especially do we appreciate the courtesies extended us by Mayor Tyler Haswell, Commissioners L. L. McInnis, H. A. Burger and Wilson Bradley, City Manager E. E. McAdams, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Covey, Secretary S. E. Eberstadt and Mrs. Rountree and others while in Bryan. I with the others am sorry you were in Denton and we did not get to see you personally. That was one of the reasons we came to Bryan as we had lots to tell you that we knew you would be glad to hear. I want to again thank you for the good time we had in Bryan for we know you and Mrs. Rountree made it possible for us to be received as we were. We hope you and the entire official family will come to the Southwestern May Fete here on June 10th and we will show you. Remember we are with you always, your friend L. J. DIMMITT."

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESSES.

Judge W. C. Davis leaves this afternoon for Caldwell to deliver the commencement address of the Caldwell High School to the 1922 graduating class of 15 members. Judge Davis delivered the address in 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Rountree leave for Navasota this afternoon where Mr. Rountree will make the commencement address of the Navasota High School which is just closing one of the most successful terms in its history under Supt. L. G. Andrews. There are twenty-one members of the graduating class. Mr. and Mrs. Rountree will be entertained by Senator and Mrs. Henry L. Lewis while in Navasota.

WAGES OF TEXAS POLITICS

(Hon. Gayle W. Talbot in Lometa Reporter.)

Personal admiration and oldtime friendships incline us toward the support of Representative Lee J. Rountree of Bryan for lieutenant governor but we may forego the pleasure at the last moment and vote for Colonel Billie Mayfield of Houston, for the position because of his cotton platform or rather the cotton plank in his platform—anyway, he is cottoning to the farmers on a positive guarantee to get them 25c per pound for cotton as soon as he becomes lieutenant governor of Texas. Just how he intends to accomplish this great benefit to the public is not clear at this writing, in fact, it is hard to tell what the lieutenant governorship has to do with regulating the prices of staple, but the Colonel Mayfield says it is one of the easiest things that he does, this price regulating. The eastern speculator is going to find himself woefully short after next January and the old law of supply and demand is to be repealed as soon as president Billie gets hold of the gavel as president of the Senate. The Republican party laid the foundation of its cruel mortuaries after the Civil War by offering forty acres and a rule to the negroes and there is no reason why

TO SAVE TEXAS LANDS

Brazos River reclamation work is receiving attention now and this is a good time for such attention as the waters of that stream recently have inundated thousands of acres of the richest farm lands along its banks. At a meeting held in Bryan active work of organizing for reclamation was set on foot. Topographical surveys will be made and efforts are being made to enlist every county south of Waco in the great project. On January 1st Editor Rountree of the Bryan Eagle issued a statement that the next great question in Texas as to be settled was (1) the impounding of the flood waters, (2) the reclamation of the inundated low lands and (3) the leveeing and straightening the rivers. So this plan has been given to Texas for action by the meeting at Bryan.—Temple Mirror.

Col. Sam Miller of the Mineral Wells Index, rises and solemnly remarks: "Amout a great many other things we forgot to mention about the Texas Press Association at Denton was the disappointment of Lee Rountree of the Bryan Eagle in not being able to meet Sam Hill." We met Sam Miller, Sam Fore, Sam Harben, Sam Hoyle, Sam Roberts, Sam Chestnut, Sam Williamson, Sam Braswell and Sam Holloway but for the life we couldn't find Sam Hill. How he got in the Sam Club of Texas as after we had fixed it up we can't tell. Sam Hill must certainly be a wrong font.

A. & M. Consolidated School Has Successful Commencement

(Special to the Eagle)

College Station, Texas, May 22.—The A. & M. College of Texas had the unique distinction Saturday of graduating from a model consolidated rural high school situated on its own campus a class of pupils and of extending to the young men in the class the privilege of matriculating in the College for the completion of their educational career. The school was established just two years ago by effecting a consolidation of the contiguous school districts with the A. & M. independent district. It is being operated with a regular teaching staff employed upon standards set by the school board which is composed entirely of A. & M. College professors. The purpose in the establishment of the school is to give actual teacher training to the students of the A. & M. College who are preparing themselves to be teachers of vocational agriculture in the Smith-Hughes high schools of the state, and for this reason College officials have undertaken to make it the most modern and best equipped consolidated school in Texas.

In making the commencement address to the graduates this morning President W. B. Bizzell mentioned the fact that it was possible for boys in College Station and the other school districts affiliated with the school here to enter the primary grade on the campus and to take their masters degree without leaving the community. He took great pride in greeting the class for the realization that it brought, that at last the influence of the A. & M. College has been extended into the immediate communities, the people through their children being brought into intimate touch with and under the influence of the College. The class composed four boys and two girls as follow: P. H.

TYLER IS AFTER TEXAS EDITORS FOR 1924 MEET.

(Tyler Courier-Times)

Secretary A. L. Burge of Tyler Chamber of Commerce attended the meeting of the Texas Press Association at Denton last week and invited the editors to meet in Tyler in 1924. Mr. Burge promised the Texas editors that Tyler people would make a better job of entertaining them than was done by the people of Denton. Of course he knew that would be a big undertaking, for what the Denton people left undone in the way of entertaining the editors was so small that you couldn't find it in an hour with a microscope. Denton citizens hangs on the outside and no hospitality of its citizens extends far and wide and when the pencil pushers of Texas met in that beautiful little city, everybody quit his or her job and put in three days in seeing that the visitors enjoyed themselves, and that is what Tyler people will do when the editors meet here in 1924.

Galveston was selected for the 1923 convention. Officers elected for the ensuing year are: H. D. Chestnut, Secretary; Fred C. Lehman, San Antonio, treasurer; Clarence E. Gilmore, Railroad Commissioner, Austin, attorney; Lee J. Rountree, Bryan, Eagle orator; Miss Gladys Wright, Denton Record-Chronicle, poet; Harry Koch, Quanah Chief, historian; Angus Leisner, Texas Star, essayist; and Buford Brown, Electric News and R. L. Ballbridge, Clifton Record, members of the executive committee. The Troup Banner of which Henry Edwards is editor, was awarded the A. H. Belo and Co. trophy cup for the best all-round weekly paper in Texas. T. N. Herring of Waxahachie Tribune was awarded the Olmstead trophy cup for the best exhibit of job printing. Retiring president Mortimer Lewis of Houston was presented with an engraved set of sterling silver by the association. Honorary membership was bestowed on Misses Evelyn Cowdich of Mount Pleasant, Lillian Williams of Fort Worth and Ruth West of Canton who are connected with C. I. A. publications.

Miss Mary Locke and Miss Smith of Zack were shopping with the Bryan merchants Tuesday.

Colbert Wilson Died From His Whipping Received Last Night

Colbert Wilson, the negro who was whipped by unmasked men in a pasture near Fin-Feather Club Lake last night and found this morning at 9 o'clock, died about 11 o'clock according to reports received by Justice J. W. Hamilton. Officers are investigating.

DETAILS OF THE CRIMES CHARGED AGAINST WILSON.

Colbert Wilson, a well known negro living on the Smetana road three miles from Bryan was found in a pasture near the Fin-Feather Lake, by Joe Pordasku about nine o'clock Tuesday morning and said he had been whipped by (unmasked) parties who were unknown to him and that there were five or six men in the party. The matter was immediately reported to officers and Sheriff L. E. Morehead, Chief of Police W. S. Martin, Justice J. W. Hamilton and Deputy Sheriff H. T. Wheelless began an investigation. It was found that Colbert Wilson had been discharged from jail where he had been imprisoned on a charge of killing a cow belonging to Roger Q. Astin on account of not being able to secure sufficient evidence for conviction. This is the fifth time Wilson has been arrested on some charges and had pleaded guilty on some cases in the district court and some cases were dismissed including arson and maiming animals. Colbert's wife in the court inquiry before Justice Hamilton testified that more than twenty years ago Wilson shot into a crowd of white men in Trinity County and was run out of the county by determined men and he came to Brazos County. After Wilson was found in the pasture he was taken home in an automobile and an inquiry was held by the court and the officers believe they have a clue as to who whipped Wilson but not sufficient evidence to convict as Wilson can not identify any of the men although they wore no masks or disguises.

The court records show and the men who whipped Wilson told him of the following charges against him since he came here from Trinity County after his wife says he shot at the white men: (1) disturbing peace, (2) burned a big barn, (3) poisoned hogs, (4) poisoned hogs and chickens, (5) shot a horse, (6) shot a brown heifer, (7) burned second barn, (8) shot Candy John horse, (9) burned a third barn, (10) cut up watermelon and pea patch, (11) burned Candy John and brother's store, (12) shot Candy John horse with 22-calibre rifle, (13) put out poison for Candy John's horse, (14) burned Candy John's house, (15) cut open Candy John's cow's side, (16) shot and killed Roger Q. Astin's cows, and various other charges.

THE TABOR BOYS' AND GIRLS' VICTORY CLUB

(By Howard Smith)

Tabor, Texas, May 19.—The Tabor Boys' and Girls' Victory Club had a most enjoyable meeting Wednesday night. Those present besides active club members were Messrs. C. L. Beason, A. W. Buchanan, E. C. Martin, Miss Mary Locke, Prof. Gabe Cazell, Mrs. Cliff Edge Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Ammons, Mr. J. L. Cobb and Miss Benbow.

The meeting was a pleasant one and was full of pep, the stuff that makes Tabor win. However amid joy and humor there came a sadness which caused us all to feel an acquisition of responsibility, for the resignations of our most valued secretary, Mary Ruth Holden, and our competent reporter, Hettie Francis, were received. We feel that it is an awful blow to lose them but knowing that they are called to another field of endeavor for the summer we shall bear it bravely and do our best without them.

These resignations being considered and accepted our meeting proceeded. Yells were led by our president, which were full of emphasis. Mr. Beason made a splendid talk, followed by a word from Mr. Buchanan.

After attending to all business, such as electing members to fill the vacancies caused by above mentioned resignations, making announcements, suggestions, etc., Prof. Cazell took charge of the meeting. He taught us a number of humorous songs which we learned very rapidly. Mr. Cazell has a nation-wide reputation as a musician having led songs in Sunday school at the age of ten. We are proud of him and feel that we must have him at our next regular meeting. Mr. Cazell emphasized the fact that he is no Yankee, as some have supposed, by stating that he was born on the Gulf of Mexico.

Among the songs taught us was: "I'm a little prairie flower growing wilder every hour. Nobody cares to cultivate me I'm just as wild as wild can be." The club was somewhat Rotarized by Prof. Cazell which added to the joy and happiness of all present.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Mexia Evening News is a newspaper with the human touch. Too many of our newspapers never hit nearer home than China or Madagascar. Long live the Mexia Evening News, one of the brightest and best newspapers in Texas.

County Superintendent Eck Smith has received a letter from Governor Neff regarding the public school question in Brazos county and Texas as submitted recently by the petitions of the people of this county and this letter will appear in the Eagle on Monday.

There is enough talk by newspapers, preachers, judges and others regarding mob law in the United States—but there is not enough talk about law enforcement. Nearly every man who is going to go out and commit some dastardly crime against the home and womanhood believes he has some powerful friends. Enforce the law!

Control of flood waters and conservation of Texas overflow lands, the richest soil in the nation, challenge some real constructive statesmanship, leadership and law-making. Where is a Moses to deliver our Lone Star State from this annual devastation and destruction to life, crops and prosperity?—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

The following ad which appeared in The Times the other morning demonstrates that even in Manhattan pets are placed aside from riches and autos: "Lost—Reward and no questions asked if my pet monkey which disappeared with my automobile is returned; description, small white face, ring tail, Engstrom, 133 West 75th."

The Athens Review says: "Over at Madisonville Day and Knight conduct the Madisonville Meteor. The two men were subject for many jokes at the recent press meeting." There are not two better men in Texas than our friends Day and Knight of Madisonville and we have traveled with them day and night in Texas and Mexico.

BOOST FOR BRYAN HI.
The Bryan High Athletic Association has inaugurated a "Boost Bryan Week," beginning next Monday and will furnish all with Bryan Auto Home Plates. Every boosting citizen of Bryan is requested to secure one of these plates at once and join in the boost for the Bryan Hi football champs.

Texas deserves a more advanced place in the list of states arranged in order as they stand on educational matters. She can walk up to the head of the list instead of remaining close to the foot of the class if her statesmanship and citizenship will only properly co-operate. Texas lawmakers need a real vision on the school question—from the most secluded little rural school house all the way along up to the highest institution of learning.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

FOURTH DISTRICT FEDERATION
Mrs. Mary Hunt Affleck of Brenham, a gifted Texas woman and a writer of note, will be at College to attend the Woman's Club Federation. Mrs. Affleck has given much of her greatness, glory and honor of Texas, the greatest state in the American Union and the Eagle is glad she came to the federation.—Bryan Eagle.

Mrs. Mary Hunt Affleck is a talented and lovely woman, and a young and lovely character.—Houston Chronicle.

Bryan citizens have been signally honored during the past few months by being elected to different honorary positions by their business associates. A. M. Waldrop has been elected president of the Texas Retail Clothiers' Association. W. S. Howell has been chosen president of the Texas Lumberman's Association, Sity Manager E. E. McAdams has been elected vice-president of the Texas League of Municipalities and Major L. L. McNinnis has been chosen one of the executive advisory council for Texas the American Bankers' Association.

BRYAN HI IS ALIVE
The Bryan High School Athletic Association is a live organization for our school and town, and they have just recently undertaken a live, boosting activity that has the endorsement of every big Chamber of Commerce in the Middle West, and they also have the endorsement of our own Chamber of Commerce. The plan is to boost Bryan by means of Auto Home plates, bearing the name of Bryan, which are to be worn attached front and rear to the license plate. The plan has been investigated thoroughly and it appears to us as being a mighty good one. We'd like to see every citizen who owns a car lining up to help the boys put over this home town boosting.

TEXAS MUST SAVE HER AGRICULTURAL LANDS

(By Lee J. Rountree).
Texas is facing the greatest problem in its history, under the changed conditions of high cost of production and high prices of lands. There is no more cheap labor and cheap lands in Texas. There will be no more fertile lands made. All the agricultural lands, fruit and vegetable lands of Texas will soon be in cultivation. Especially is this true in the rich and fertile valley of the Brazos River, where the soil rivals that of the famous River Nile. The analysis shows that its rich lands rival the best of the whole world.

Disastrous floods are sweeping over the Brazos river watershed. It and its tributaries contain 5,000,000 acres of arid lands, and changed conditions bring flood waters down the smaller streams into the Brazos and to the sea. That means disaster to the growing crops and the rich lands. It means that men who have given their money and their life work to the cultivation of this wonderful country can not much longer bear the unequal burden laid on them by the flood waters from the north and the west. The limit of their heroic endurance has about come. In 1899, in 1918 and in 1913 they were sorely tried by great losses from waters from the outlying country. In September 1921 they lost all. In the spring of 1922 two disastrous floods have been their part of the harvest of the heavy rains.

Texas is now facing its gravest problems—the impounding of the flood waters of the Brazos River watershed for the arid lands and the drainage and protection of the low-lands that are flooded and inundated. We might as well face the issue that local levees will not save our lands. They will help it is true, but they are not sufficient. A mere handful of thoughtful citizens of Brazos, Robertson, Burleson, Washington and Grimes counties met in Bryan on May 15 and took a survey of the situation. They have a vision of what is needed and laid the foundation for the task before them. State Reclamation Engineer Stiles declared they were on the right road long and unbroken as it may seem to the men who intelligently and determinedly laid out the program to prevent the ultimate impoverishment of all the land owners of this wonderfully rich section of Texas. They gave their program of protection, reclamation and flood prevention to people of Texas. Shall they fail? The Governor of Texas declared at Denton a few days ago that the saving of Texas agricultural lands was a paramount issue and that he would favor a program of rehabilitation. Then follows the declaration of the Brazos Reclamation Association formed at Bryan upon the sound principles of self-preservation we must go before the country and make it possible to transact real business and not fail. The problem is here and we must find the remedy for its solution which means much work and determination but the sooner we get busy the better. Texans have never failed and they must not fail now. No people of patriotic courage are afraid to do the right and safe thing when it is the right way for procedure. The foundation is laid in Texas by the Bryan meeting so let us go forward to ultimate success as the forefathers never turned back in the face of disaster their children will not falter now in this crisis along the Brazos River which Governor Neff declares is Texas greatest problem.

STRAIGHTENING THE RIVER CHANNEL OF THE KEMEDY, (Hearne Democrat)

Judge Seth Burnett of Calvert, former mayor of that city, for many years a successful planter in the Brazos bottom, owning a large plantation near Elgin, a level-headed man whose opinions are worth passing on for the consideration of our readers, was in the city Monday morning and when asked about the overflow damage in his section, he said that several hundred acres of his place had been under water four times this spring.

He also said that up to 1899 overflows were of such rare occurrence that no one regarded them as a serious menace to successful farming in the Brazos river section; but they had now come to be looked for at any and all times of the year.

In his opinion the best remedy is for the Federal government to cut across the bends, straighten the channel, dredge out and clean out the bed of the stream, and that the water will run off as it used to do, instead of spreading out over all of the adjoining plantations by reason of the numerous bends and obstructions in the channel.

Billions of dollars have been spent by the Federal government in causes far less meritorious, and such streams as the Brazos in other states have been kept in excellent condition by Federal expenditure because the people demanded it of their congressmen, and their congressmen secured the necessary appropriations.

PEOPLE OF BRYAN

(By A Bryan High Graduate)
Be sure to come to the Bryan High School Saturday night, May 20, at 8 o'clock and hear some learned speakers of the public speaking class give short but interesting selections on various subjects. No two persons speak on the same subject. If you have any doubt in your mind as to how to live peacefully with yourself come hear Gertrude Sims speak one "Peace." Merle Minkert is going to give a short dissertation on "Gossip." If you don't know gossip when you hear it, Merle will show you clearly what it sounds like. Philip Hensarling is going to tell those who quake in their boots when they ask the boss for a raise how to get "courage" and Edwin Janick is going to give his famous speech on "The Home and the Republic." These are just samples, all are equally good. Be sure and come, the whole program lasts just long enough for you to be disappointed when it stops and you will have plenty of time to go elsewhere after the program. Don't forget—Saturday night, May 20, at 8 o'clock.

Editor Will C. Edwards of the Denton Record-Chronicle was presented with a handsome and spacious traveling bag by his brother editors at Denton during the recent meeting of the Texas Press Association for his splendid and continuous work for the entertainment of the visitors. Incidentally Will was reminded that he will need the bag when he goes to the legislature at Austin this winter. We understand Will has lots of clothes to take to Austin and of course a big travelling bag will come in handy. The Eagle is truly glad that the people of Denton appreciate the work of Editor Edwards and are supporting him to the limit. This is fine co-operation and will succeed at all times.

Trustee J. D. Battle, assisted by the board made arrangements for all to witness the program. The stage was suitably decorated in green and white the class colors, backed by red, white and blue in a patriotic celebration. Prof. P. A. Deering, the principal, presided, and the following program was rendered: Invocation, County Superintendent Eck Smith; Song, "America"; Music, Mildred Meredith; Valedictory, Mildred Meredith; Commencement address, Hon. Lee J. Rountree of Bryan, Tex.; Music, Mildred Meredith; Salutatory, Clara Sample; Music, Mildred Meredith; Valedictory, Mildred Meredith; Presentation of diplomas, C. L. Beason of Bryan.

In introducing the speaker, Mr. Rountree to make the commencement address, Prof. Deering said that no man in Texas was a truer or stauncher friend of education and the public schools of Texas at home, in the Texas legislature and throughout the state. After complimenting the graduates, the trustees, the teachers and the pupils of Millican school Mr. Rountree declared for a great public school system of Texas based upon a blanket, unage tax for every child, rich or poor, in the country or cities based upon attendance until every school house under the consolidated idea would remain open nine months in the year until our education should become efficient, universal and the living moving power for all time. This glorious government and our eternal institutions from the public schools and in God's great open country to the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and the State University belong to those who would perpetuate them and not to those who destroy them and I favor taxes, laws and instructors that will make them beyond institutions of the first class as intended by the heroic men who wrote the constitution of Texas. County Agent C. L. Beason, of Brazos County, was introduced by Prof. Deering as a man who was always ready to perform any service when called and the people of the Millican community owed much to Mr. Beason for his friendship and support of our schools. In presenting the diplomas to the graduates Miss Clara Sample and Miss Mildred Meredith, Mr. Beason said he was never so happy as when he could do something to show his appreciation of the work of the boys and girls for they were the citizens of tomorrow. The vast assemblage applauded the words of Mr. Beason when he presented the diplomas and County Superintendent Eck Smith declared the Millican High school commencement exercises one of the best he had attended. Prof. Deering was given a great tribute for his unselfish and successful work. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. A. Sample, of the Methodist church.

CONTROL OF FLOOD WATERS NOW BECOMES A PARAMOUNT ISSUE

(By Mark L. Goodwin)

Washington, May 23.—The prospect of Congress voting a sum of money to purchase free seed for sufferers in the flooded areas of the South to replant the devastated sections was killed this afternoon when the Subappropriations Committee of the House of Representatives voted unanimously not to report the Rhodes bill proposing an expenditure of $2,000,000 for that purpose. The action of the subcommittee was taken following a hearing at which Secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture and a large number of members of Congress from the affected States had appeared to tell of the conditions. Representative Madden of Illinois, chairman of the committee said following the meeting that the committee members regarded it too late to accomplish much this season through Federal aid, that the results were no, problematical, and that it was not best to embark upon a free seed policy such as the Rhodes bill proposed.

Texas Situation Worse.

At the hearing Secretary Wallace told the committee that the situation in Texas was worse than in any other state according to the survey the department had made showing more than 700,000 acres damaged. Any relief to be given, he added, should be without delay. He was inclined to the belief that time remained for the farmers to make a crop this season. He had nothing to say, however, regarding the policy of giving free seed. Texas was represented at the hearing by representatives Briggs and Buchanan, who presented details as to the situation in that State, and a telegram from Governor Neff as to what would be needed.

Members of the committee wanted to know what the State of Texas was doing to relieve the condition of its people. Mr. Buchanan replied that the localities were doing all that they could, but that the State is prohibited by its Constitution from giving direct aid.

Not Without Precedent.

The committee was reminded that the application for aid was not without precedent and attention was called to the recent vote of the House, giving $1,000,000 to aid Western farmers. In that case, however, the Government proposed to take a mortgage on the crops to reimburse itself. The Texas members have declared that relief on account of a calamity ought not to be made the subject of barter. It was pointed out in Governor Neff's communications to the members of the delegation that some of the rivers, particularly in the southern part of the state, had several times been miles in width, and the most recent floods for the third time this season swept away the crops, but that the people were willing to undertake planting for a fourth time.

Protection Of Brazos River

Representative Connolly introduced a bill which would start the machinery of Government toward controlling the flood waters of the Brazos. The measure directs the Secretary of War to have a survey made of the stream under the existing law, with a view to preventing future overflows, in accordance with terms of the flood control law.

Millican, Texas, May 20.—The commencement exercises of the Millican High school were held in the auditorium Friday evening at 8 o'clock and there was hardly standing room in the building as great community wide interest was taken in the exercises. Trustee J. D. Battle, assisted by the board made arrangements for all to witness the program. Lee J. Rountree of Bryan; Trio, Andrew Meredith, Clara Sample and Alice Kennedy; Presentation of diplomas, C. L. Beason of Bryan.

In introducing the speaker, Mr. Rountree to make the commencement address, Prof. Deering said that no man in Texas was a truer or stauncher friend of education and the public schools of Texas at home, in the Texas legislature and throughout the state. After complimenting the graduates, the trustees, the teachers and the pupils of Millican school Mr. Rountree declared for a great public school system of Texas based upon a blanket, income tax for every child, rich or poor, in the country or cities based upon attendance until every school house under the consolidated idea would remain open nine months in the year until our education should become efficient, universal and the living moving power for all time. This glorious government and our eternal institutions from the public schools and in God's great open country to the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and the State University belong to those who would perpetuate them and not to those who destroy them and I favor taxes, laws and instructors that will make them beyond institutions of the first class as intended by the heroic men who wrote the constitution of Texas. County Agent C. L. Beason, of Brazos County, was introduced by Prof. Deering as a man who was always ready to perform any service when called and the people of the Millican community owed much to Mr. Beason for his friendship and support of our schools. In presenting the diplomas to the graduates Miss Clara Sample and Miss Mildred Meredith, Mr. Beason said he was never so happy as when he could do something to show his appreciation of the work of the boys and girls for they were the citizens of tomorrow. The vast assemblage applauded the words of Mr. Beason when he presented the diplomas and County Superintendent Eck Smith declared the Millican High school commencement exercises one of the best he had attended. Prof. Deering was given a great tribute for his unselfish and successful work. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. A. Sample, of the Methodist church.

Marlin, Texas, May 23.—The pontoon bridge for spanning the Brazos River west of town has arrived at Marlin and is being assembled today. Six are known to have perished, only one body being found to date. General Hines, commandant of the Eighth Corps Area, was very accommodating in lending the bridge to the county and placing a company of men in charge. The only expense to the county will be the transportation of bridge and men, which will amount to $5,000. The International and Great Northern Railroad made a special rate of 50 per cent of the regular rate for the special train which brought the bridge and men here. The bridge will be of untold benefit to the east side of the county and Marlin in particular, as there has been a shallow oil field opened just west of the river.

CONTROL OF FLOOD WATERS NOW BECOMES A PARAMOUNT ISSUE

(By Mark L. Goodwin)

Washington, May 23.—The prospect of Congress voting a sum of money to purchase free seed for sufferers in the flooded areas of the South to replant the devastated sections was killed this afternoon when the Subappropriations Committee of the House of Representatives voted unanimously not to report the Rhodes bill proposing an expenditure of $2,000,000 for that purpose. The action of the subcommittee was taken following a hearing at which Secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture and a large number of members of Congress from the affected States had appeared to tell of the conditions. Representative Madden of Illinois, chairman of the committee said following the meeting that the committee members regarded it too late to accomplish much this season through Federal aid, that the results were not problematical, and that it was not best to embark upon a free seed policy such as the Rhodes bill proposed.

Texas Situation Worse.

At the hearing Secretary Wallace told the committee that the situation in Texas was worse than in any other state according to the survey the department had made showing more than 700,000 acres damaged. Any relief to be given, he added, should be without delay. He was inclined to the belief that time remained for the farmers to make a crop this season. He had nothing to say, however, regarding the policy of giving free seed. Texas was represented at the hearing by representatives Briggs and Buchanan, who presented details as to the situation in that State, and a telegram from Governor Neff as to what would be needed.

Members of the committee wanted to know what the State of Texas was doing to relieve the condition of its people. Mr. Buchanan replied that the localities were doing all that they could, but that the State is prohibited by its Constitution from giving direct aid.

Not Without Precedent.

The committee was reminded that the application for aid was not without precedent and attention was called to the recent vote of the House, giving $1,000,000 to aid Western farmers. In that case, however, the Government proposed to take a mortgage on the crops to reimburse itself. The Texas members have declared that relief on account of a calamity ought not to be made the subject of barter. It was pointed out in Governor Neff's communications to the members of the delegation that some of the rivers, particularly in the southern part of the state, had several times been miles in width, and that the most recent floods for the third time this season swept away the crops, but that the people were willing to undertake planting for a fourth time.

Protection Of Brazos River

Representative Connolly introduced a bill which would start the machinery of Government toward controlling the flood waters of the Brazos. The measure directs the Secretary of War to have a survey made of the stream under the existing law, with a view to preventing future overflows, in accordance with terms of the flood control law.

Snake Makes a Raid on Club Member's Poultry Yard.

Emma Kosarek, secretary Smetana Boys' and Girls' Club, writes the following interesting letter: Dear Mr. Beason: We have 48 chicks in the orchard. We keep them separate from the others because they are the finest of the whole bunch. We bought the eggs from College this spring. Tonight just after supper I heard the chicks crying. Mamma and I ran out to see what was the matter, and when we came there we saw a large chicken snake in the coop among the chicks. The snake had one killed and was trying to kill another. I picked up a stick that was lying near and killed the snake. It measured five feet in length—(Signed) Emma Kosarek.

You are a brave girl, Emma, and did the right thing in protecting your flock of fine poultry. Your community is making some fine headway in producing poultry of the finest sort, and no doubt they will win some of the prizes at the next show we have.

To be convinced that terracing and rotation of crops are conducive to soil improvement, one only needs to look at the crops already being grown on the old Gorkyski place, now known as "Scoties Field," just to the east of the College on the Rock Prairie road. Last year there was a fine crop of corn grown on the land and now many he seen on the poorest of the land one of the finest out crops that is ever grown in this part of the country. Where these fine oats have been produced peas were planted last year, the legumes furnishing the Nitrogen, humus, etc. necessary for good crop yields. And yet so many of our best farmers neglect to plant legumes on their land year after year.

Mr. R. L. Pou, Dairy Husbandman, A. & M. College, advises County Agent C. L. Beason that the College has a number of highly bred Holstein and Jersey bull calves which will be offered to the farmers of this county at prices and terms reasonable. In no better way can our dairy stock be improved than by using good sires, and if individuals are unable to keep a good sire then the neighborhood should purchase one cooperatively.

We can not become dairymen overnight, but we may begin now to lay the foundation for a great dairy industry here in Brazos county. The opportunity is ours. Are you interested?

Clyde Goen, an enterprising young farmer and stockman of the Coleview neighborhood, is highly in favor of a county fair. He believes it would greatly stimulate all stockmen who have already made much improvement in their herds, but who might be benefited by seeing something better and learning how to produce it. We have yet to find one who thinks a county fair would not help. We need it just at this time to "pep" up the game a little. Chairman Martin suppose you call that general agricultural committee together and map out plans for the county fair. President R. Q. Astin is "rearing to go." If fairs are helpful in bringing about a better agriculture—and everyone admits that—then we ought to have a fair for Brazos county. Tabor and Millican are now working on their fairs, but our plans ought to provide that the best from these communities, and other communities, could be exhibited at the county seat for the inspection of all our people.

"We have been waiting for president Raymond Mathis to call a meeting of his Steep Hollow club when will help give the club a picture show. Friday night of this week is taken up with meeting of College Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kraft, College campus, and Saturday night the Harvey club will have its regular meeting, Miss Alta Williams, the Secretary to notify the County Agent later as to place of meeting. The Edg club is standing on tiptoes waiting for the Brazos County Poultry Association to bring the Junior Band and repeat the Smetana meeting. The Poultry Association has already voted to give Edg a date, but the time has not been set on account of the condition of the roads at Bee creek and Cedar creek. Somebody overheard Commissioner Edg talking about Bee creek, and it is supposed that he was planning to give relief at the earliest possible time to this awful piece of road. That is all anybody can do, so let's bide our time with patience. In the meantime let the club members at Edg and elsewhere as to that matter, keep up their projects and have the best reports possible to make at the regular meetings.

Much of the corn is of poor stand and not promising at this time. A side application of fertilizer might prove beneficial. Suppose you try a little phosphate as a side application and in this way you will be better prepared next year. Peas or other legumes planted in the skippy corn might prove the better crop and at the same time help build up the soil.

C. S. Jones, one of our leading stockmen, thinks a livestock show would help the industry in this county, and stimulate all agriculture. Certainly it would. We need to get together and show our best products whatever they are, and let the club members, "make our best better."

County Superintendent Eck Smith, having seen the Grimes county exhibit at the Rural Life Conference recently held at Huntsville, Texas, is highly in favor of inviting County Superintendent, George Barron, County Agent C. Hohn, and Miss Reynolds Home Demonstration Agent for Grimes county to bring their exhibit to Brazos county in the near future that our people may get a vision of how the schools may function in the progress and development of a county. The idea is a good one and we would be glad for our people to see what is being done in the schools of Grimes county knowing that what Grimes county can do, Brazos county can do, and do it better. County Agent Beason will write Mr. Hohn when it is called. It will be a Grimes county co-workers can visit this county and put on their show.

It is getting about time of the year for us to have a county-wide club meet, and it was thought to call this meeting for the early part of June but owing to the excessive rains we shall give you a few more days to clean out that crop before we call for you. But say, don't miss that meeting when it is called. It will be a dandy, far ahead even of those we had last year. If you do not want to laugh better not come. We will begin at sundown in order that we may have plenty of time to finish up all the fun. Let us have your suggestion in making up the program for the meeting.

Mr. Gabe Carrell went to Tabor last Wednesday night and taught the Tabor boys and girls many pep songs. It was a great hour with the club. He will visit your club if you will invite him. He always has something good to tell young people and he can make them laugh, too. If you do not believe it, ask him to sing "I'm a little prairie flower." We expect to have Mr. Cazell at our county-wide meet and have him lead "Old McDonald Had A Farm" for 200 happy boys and girls. Howard Smith, reporter of the Tabor Club will be asked to put on the yell that won the prize over all others at Tabor club.

Let us look well to our feed crops, while we yet hold out hope for a cotton crop, not impossible but sorghum, peas, peanuts, etc. may be planted to advantage even later than this. Sweet potatoes may yet be produced in abundance. Last year, in a fertilizer test, conducted cooperatively with Dr. G. S. Frapps, state chemist, College Station, County Agent Beason produced as high as 180 bushels of sweet potatoes per acre planted in July and on sandy land worn out 40 years ago. Such a crop sold at 50 cents a bushel would beat an uncertain cotton crop, or no crop at all. At any rate let's not put all our eggs in one basket. The more with handles to them the better.

GREAT DINNER FOR A.&M. DAIRY CATTLE JUDGING CONTESTS

(Special to the Eagle)

College Station, Texas, May 24.—The first annual dairy cattle judging contest held last Saturday afternoon and concluded in the evening with a dinner on dairy products spread on tables in the modern sanitary dairy barn of the College was conceded by all who participated to be one of the great accomplishments of a College department. It was a cooperative endeavor by the Cream and Kow Klub and the dairy husbandry department of the College. The contest was held during the afternoon and was participated in by thirty-five freshman students who represented the upper third in scholarship of the students, taking the judging course in dairy husbandry. In the evening the ten highest men in the contest were guests of the Klub at the dairy husbandry department, other College officials and Bryan people.

As a grand conclusion of the banquet the winners in the contest were announced by A. L. Darnell, associate professor of dairy husbandry. S. O. Stroble, as high point man of the first prize, a handsome gold medal. W. B. Orr of Dallas as high man in the judging of Jerseys was a man in the registered Jersey bull calf as the prize offered in that division. J. F. Buchanan and W. G. Craig were announced as tied for the prize in the Holstein division, which was a registered Holstein bull calf. Later the tie was decided by a toss in favor of Buchanan. Both of the animals awarded are from the registered stock of the dairy husbandry department and were purchased by the Cream and Kow Klub.

The dinner was presided over by Prof. R. L. Pou, head of the dairy husbandry department. He called upon a number of those present for short talks and they responded in an enthusiastic manner. Major Ike S. Ashburn commended the dairy department on the contest and the dinner as a progressive step to advertise the department and increase the interest of students. Judge W. C. Davis of Bryan, championed the cause of more scientific dairying in the state. Lee J. Rountree of Bryan praised the department for its great work in promoting the dairy industry in Texas and pledged himself to use his utmost strength wherever needed to make the work of the department and those who were making a success. Mr. Hutton, secretary and treasurer of the Pierce Ranch responded shortly with a few remarks on the importance of dairying in the state. Porter O. Atin of Bryan talked on the importance of improved stock on a diversified farm. Dr. D. M. Mantell, stressed the value of health in livestock. C. L. Beason, county agent of Brazos county, held of club work with dairy cattle. W. R. Tatham, assistant director of the Extension Service discussed the extent of dairying in the state. H. H. Williamson, state agricultural agent of the Extension Service contrasted the dairy methods of Europe and America, giving information that he gathered last year on his tour of Europe with the club boys. T. J. Conway, professor of poultry husbandry talked on the relation of dairy and poultry husbandry. C. M. Evans, dairy specialist, Extension Service, presented the future of the dairy industry in Texas. S. E. Eberstadt, secretary of the Bryan Chapter of Commerce, diverted from the topic of dairy husbandry and declared his willingness to cooperate with the college in securing a better relationship with Bryan girls. Fred Horton, owner and publisher of the Greenville Banner declared his surprise in observing the great accomplishment of the College in promoting the dairy business of the state. Following these short talks by guests students were called on for discussions of the different phases of the dairy business. C. H. Chambers discussed "The Food Value of Milk" and F. Lester gave a short history of butter making. M. P. Stewart diversified the remarks by giving a very humorous account of his experience with a dairy cow in Europe. Vol Bennett president of the senior class urged the dairy husbandry students to attend the "Bug Hunters" picnic next Saturday and join the club of agricultural students that will be organized at that time.

Walter W. Kraft superintendent of buildings and college utilities gave the dairy officials an optimistic feeling by referring to the new building which it is proposed shall some day house the department with all its branches. Professor Pou concluded the dinner by reviewing briefly the progress of the department and the hopes that he entertains for its success in the future.

The spreading of the dinner in the dairy barn emphasized the sanitary methods of milk production as practiced in a modern plant as the one operated here. Just two hours before the dinner was started 100 cows had been fed, milked and tended in the very space occupied by the diners, and yet there was not the least odor to offend.

To emphasize the importance of dairy products as a food the entire menu was made up of dairy products or food produced chiefly from milk, consisting of barbecued milk fed beef, barbecued milk fed chicken, butter, ice cream, lacto ice cream, sweet milk, Bulgarian butter milk and bread. The ice cream was made by the students of dairy husbandry.

THE NAVASOTA HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES

(Navasota Examiner-Review)

The 1921-22 term of Navasota High School came to an appropriate end last night at the school auditorium in the graduating exercises which were truly beautiful in their dignified simplicity. In spite of threatening weather the auditorium was filled with friends of the school and the graduating class when the hour for the exercises came. After the invocation by Rev. F. S. Henderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, the salutary address was given by Miss Eulalie Smith, which was followed by a piano number by Miss Gertrude Gilliland. The presentation of gifts to the members of the class by Miss Nelda Loftin was the source of much amusement to their friends. Miss Marjorie Lord beautifully rendered two vocal numbers, after which Miss Adriana Bragg delivered the valedictory.

Hon. Lee J. Rountree of Bryan delivered the graduation address dealing chiefly with the problems which confront the public school system of Texas at this time. He praised the wise provisions made by the founders of this commonwealth in educational matters and made a plea for better educational facilities for both the city and rural schools of the State. Mr. Rountree advocated a blanket or millage tax to raise the constitutional provision of six months public school term per year to nine months in every public school in Texas—in the cities and the country.

After an enjoyable number by the senior chorus, diplomas were then presented by Superintendent L. G. Andrews to the following members of the senior class: Francis Lenore Barry, Adriana Bragg, Vivienne Grace Buffington, Donald A. Burrow, Willie Louise Floyd, Ruth Franklow, Gertrude Gilliland Curtis Howard, Nelda Loftin, Marjorie Ann Lord, Anna Gladys Lyles, Bettie Mabel Miller, Anne Muenker, Gwyn Beaumont McAlpine, Cook Swanson Reynolds, Louise Helen Riest, Mildred Bernice Sanders, Alice Eloise Scoggin, Eulalie Smith, Robert Lee Stoneham, Ruth Margaret Stoneham, Mary Louise Taylor.

Miss Adriana Bragg, who made a general average of 95 11-48 per cent for the entire year's work, received a scholarship from a number of colleges for having made the highest average among the girls of the class and Robert Stoneham was awarded scholarships for making the highest average among the boys.

The H. L. Lewis prize offered the first term of school for the best essay on Fire Prevention was won by Miss Eulalie Smith, it being $5.00. The Sims prize for Fire Prevention essay was won by Weaver Leigh in High School. The Felder prize of $15.00 for the best general average in the High School was won by Miss Adriana Bragg, her average of 95 11-48 being 2-48ths better than her nearest competitor Miss Eulalie Smith.

Prizes in the grammar grades of the school, which were awarded Saturday night were as follows: The D. A. R. prize of $5.00, for the best average in U. S. History in the seventh grade, was won by Victoria Oxenford.

The Sims Fire Prevention prize of $2.50 was won by Antum Cuthrell.

The Felder prize for the Intermediate grades was taken by Edna Eckert, with a general average of 95 3-4. This prize was $8.00.

The Felder prize of $7 for the Primary went to Elaine McAlpine, who made an average of 96 5-6 for the year.

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Snake Makes a Raid on Club Member's Poultry Yard.

Emma Kosarek, secretary Smetana Boys' and Girls' Club, writes the following interesting letter: Dear Mr. Beason: We have 48 chicks in the orchard. We keep them separate from the others because they are the finest of the whole bunch. We bought the eggs from College this spring. Tonight just after supper I heard the chicks crying. Mamma and I ran out to see what was the matter, and when we came there we saw a large chicken snake in the coop among the chicks. The snake had one killed and was trying to kill another. I picked up a stick that was lying near and killed the snake. It measured five feet in length.—(Signed) Emma Kosarek.

You are a brave girl, Emma, and did the right thing in protecting your flock of fine poultry. Your community is making some fine headway in producing poultry of the finest sort, and no doubt they will win some of the prizes at the next show we have.

To be convinced that terracing and rotation of crops are conducive to soil improvement, one only needs to look at the crops already being grown on the old Goreyski place, now known as "Seatoes Field," just to the east of the College on the Rock Prairie road. Last year there was a fine crop of corn grown on the land and now many he seen on the poorest of the land one of the finest oat crops that is ever grown in this part of the country. Where these fine oats have been produced peas were planted last year, the legumes furnishing the Nitrogen, humus, etc. necessary for good crop yields. And yet so many of our best farmers neglect to plant legumes on their land year after year.

Mr. R. L. Pou, Dairy Husbandman, A. & M. College advises County Agent C. L. Beason that the College has a number of highly bred Holstein and Jersey bull calves which will be offered to the farmers of this county at prices and terms reasonable. In no better way can our dairy stock be improved than by using good sires, and if individuals are unable to keep a good sire then the neighborhood should purchase one cooperatively. We can not become dairymen overnight, but we may begin now to lay the foundation for a great dairy industry here in Brazos county. The opportunity is ours. Are you interested?

Clyde Goen, an enterprising young farmer and stockman of the Coleview neighborhood, is highly in favor of a county fair. He believes it would greatly stimulate all stockmen who have already made much improvement in their herds, but who might be benefited by seeing something better and learning how to produce it. We have yet to find one who thinks a county fair would not help. We need it just at this time to "pep" up the game a little. Chairman Martin suppose you call that general agricultural committee together and map out plans for the county fair. President R. Q. Astin is "rearing to go." If fairs are helpful in bringing about a better agriculture—and everyone admits that—then we ought to have a fair for Brazos county. Tabor and Millican are now working on their fairs, but our plans ought to provide that the best from these communities, and other communities, could be exhibited at the county seat for the inspection of all our people.

We have been waiting for president Raymond Mathis to call a meeting of his Steep Hollow club when will help give the club a picture show. Friday night of this week is taken up with meeting of College Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kraft, College campus, and Saturday night the Harvey club will have its regular meeting, Miss Alta Williams, the Secretary to notify the County Agent later as to place of meeting. The Edge club is standing on tiptoes waiting for the Brazos County Poultry Association to bring the Junior Band and repeat the Smetana meeting. The Poultry Association has already voted to give Edge a date, but the time has not been set on account of the condition of the roads at Bee creek and Cedar creek. Somebody overheard Commissioner Edge talking about Bee creek, and it is supposed that he was planning to give relief at the earliest possible time to this awful piece of road. That is all anybody can do, so let's bide our time with patience. In the meantime let the club members at Edge and elsewhere as to that matter keep up their projects and have the best reports possible to make at the regular meetings.

Much of the corn is of poor stand and not promising at this time. A side application of fertilizer might prove beneficial. Suppose you try a little phosphate as a side application and in this way you will be better prepared next year. Peas or other legumes planted in the skippy corn might prove the better crop and at the same time help build up the soil.

C. S. Jones, one of our leading stockmen, thinks a livestock show would help the industry in this county, and stimulate all agriculture. Certainly it would. We need to get together and show our best products whatever they are, and like the club members, "make our best better."

County Superintendent Eck Smith, having seen the Grimes county exhibit at the Rural Life Conference recently held at Huntsville, Texas, is highly in favor of inviting County Superintendent George Barron, County Agent C. Hohn, and Miss Reynolds Home Demonstration Agent for Grimes county to bring their exhibit to Brazos county in the near future that our people may get a vision of how the schools may function in the progress and development of a county. The idea is a good one and we would be glad for our people to see what is being done in the schools of Grimes county knowing that what Grimes county can do, Brazos county can do, and do it better. County Agent Beason will write Mr. Hohn when it is called. It will be a Grimes county co-workers can visit this county and put on their show.

It is getting about time of the year for us to have a county-wide club meet, and it was thought to call this meeting for the early part of June but owing to the excessive rains we shall give you a few more days to clean out that crop before we call for you. But say, don't miss that meeting when it is called. It will be a dandy, far ahead even of those we had last year. If you do not want to laugh better not come. We will begin at sundown in order that we may have plenty of time to finish up all the fun. Let us have your suggestion in making up the program for the meeting.

Mr. Gabe Cazell went to Tabor last Wednesday night and taught the Tabor boys and girls many pep songs. It was a great hour with the club. He will visit your club if you will invite him. He always has something good to tell young people and he can make them laugh, too. If you do not believe it, ask him to sing "I'm a little raider flower." We expect to have Mr. Cazell at our county-wide meet and have him lead "Old McDonald Had A Farm" for 200 happy boys and girls. Howard Smith, reporter of the Tabor Club will be asked to put on the yell that won the prize over all others at Tabor club.

Let us look well to our feed crops, while we yet hold out hope for a cotton crop, not impossible but sorghum, peas, peanuts, etc. may be planted to advantage even later than this. Sweet potatoes may yet be produced in abundance. Last year, in a fertilizer test, conducted cooperatively with Dr. G. S. Franks, state chemist, College Station, County Agent Beason produced as high as 180 bushels of sweet potatoes per acre planted in July and on sandy land worn out 40 years ago. Such a crop sold at 50 cents a bushel would beat an uncertain cotton crop, or no crop at all. At any rate let's not put all our eggs in one basket. The more with handles to them the better.

THE NAVASOTA HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES

(Navasota Examiner-Review)

The 1921-22 term of Navasota High School came to an appropriate end last night at the school auditorium in the graduating exercises which were truly beautiful in their dignified simplicity. In spite of threatening weather the auditorium was filled with friends of the school and the graduating class when the hour for the exercises came. After the invocation by Rev. F. S. Henderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, the salutary address was given by Miss Eulalie Smith, which was followed by a piano number by Miss Gertrude Gilliland. The presentation of gifts to the members of the class by Miss Nelda Loftin was the source of much amusement to their friends. Miss Marjorie Lord beautifully rendered two vocal numbers, after which Miss Adriana Bragg delivered the valedictory.

Hon. Lee J. Rountree of Bryan delivered the graduation address dealing chiefly with the problems which confront the public school system of Texas at this time. He praised the wise provisions made by the founders of this commonwealth in educational matters and made a plea for better educational facilities for both the city and rural schools of the State. Mr. Rountree advocated a blanket or millage tax to raise the constitutional provision of six months public school term per year to nine months in every public school in Texas—in the cities and the country.

After an enjoyable number by the senior chorus, diplomas were then presented by Superintendent L. G. Andrews to the following members of the senior class: Francis Lenore Barry, Adriana Bragg, Vivienne Grace Buffington, Donald A. Burrow, Willie Louise Floyd, Ruth Franklow, Gertrude Gilliland, Curtis Howard, Nelda Loftin, Marjorie Ann Lord, Anna Gladys Lyles, Bettie Mabel Miller, Anne Muenker, Gwyn Beaumont McApine, Cook Swanson Reynolds, Louise Helen Riosto, Mildred Bernice Sanders, Alice Eloise Scoggin, Eulalie Smith, Robert Lee Stoneham, Ruth Margaret Stoneham, Mary Louise Taylor.

Miss Adriana Bragg, who made a general average of 95 11-48 per cent for the entire year's work, received a scholarship from a number of colleges for having made the highest average among the girls of the class and Robert Stoneham was awarded scholarships for making the highest average among the boys.

The H. L. Lewis prize offered the first term of school for the best essay on Fire Prevention was won by Miss Eulalie Smith, it being $5.00. The Sims prize for Fire Prevention essay was won by Weaver Leigh in High School. The Felder prize of $15.00 for the best general average in the High School was won by Miss Adriana Bragg, her average of 95 11-48 being 2-48ths better than her nearest competitor Miss Eulalie Smith.

Prizes in the grammar grades of the school, which were awarded Saturday night were as follows: The D. A. R. prize of $5.00, for the best average in U. S. History in the seventh grade, was won by Victoria Oxenford.

The Sims Fire Prevention prize of $2.50 was won by Antum Cuthrell.

The Felder prize for the Intermediate grades was taken by Edna Ueckert, with a general average of 95 3-4. This prize was $8.00.

The Felder prize of $7 for the Primary went to Elaine McApine, who made an average of 96 5-6 for the year.

Every business man in Bryan should plant an advertisement in the Bryan Eagle. The newspaper is the best advertisement for the town. Advertising in the Eagle is worth more than bill board advertising. Real merchants and business men should bear these facts in mind and act accordingly. Phone No. 36.

Do Not Permit Hasty Meals.
Eating slowly should be taught to children from their earliest days. Often during their school days they get into the way of hurrying over their meals. This habit may cause much illness in later life.

Little Willie Willis says: "Dad is the best chum I got, and sometimes I think I love him better'n mother; but I don't think it when I get sick."

Life Without Sustenance.

Unless subjected to extremes of temperature, the average healthy individual will survive a week or ten days of complete abstinence from food and water.
